"We have been using vibration therapy with our players this season and have been very pleased with the early results. We looked at different manufacturers machines and chose 'Fitvibe' as it was the most stable device on the market, a feature that we have found very important. It is also the easiest machine to use particularly in terms of setting up quickly and adjusting and changing programmes. The pre-programmed routines are helpful in the beginning to get used to the machine and vibration therapy and the facilities to create custom made programmes are more beneficial as the user becomes accustomed to the device and therapy principles. I can fully recommend the machine to anybody looking to acquire a vibration therapy device."
